Administration

EDITED BY: Doug Vogel

MR. GEORGE MEEKER, SUPERINTENDENT

Area Schools Consolidate

Consolidation was the big word throughout the state of Kansas for the 1966-67 school year. Consolidation increased the job for Mr. Meeker, who has been superintendent of Phillipsburg city schools for eight years. This year he was superintendent of school District 325, which includes schools in Glade, Speed, Stuttgart, Labelle and Phillipsburg.

During Mr. Meeker's administration, he has tried to improve the quality of the teaching personnel, has helped improve teacher's salaries, and has brought textbook rental into all of the Phillipsburg schools. His biggest project was the obtaining of the bond issue to build the new Phillipsburg High School.

Helping Mr. Meeker with school policies and budget was the school board, chosen by the people of Phillipsburg. Through their cooperation and interest in education, many goals were reached for District 325.

MEMBERS of the 1966-67 school board were: Ray Thompson, Vice President; Duane Troyer; Orville Sigwing; Emil Dusin, President; Fred Robinson; and Kenneth John.

CHANGES in schedule, student discipline and new equipment were topics discussed at the many faculty meetings throughout the school year.

MR. WM. KENDRICK, PRINCIPAL

Kendrick Pursues Educational Goals

Educational excellence, participation in worthwhile extra-curricular activities, and school sportsmanship, have been Mr. Kendrick's goals for the three years he has been principal at Phillipsburg High School.

Under his leadership, continuing and far-reaching improvements in the physical and academic structure have brought the school a place of eminence in the league.

Working always to maintain and improve the academic standards, he has encouraged a well-stocked library containing audio-visual equipment; promoted attendance at speech, journalism, and music clinics; and given recognition to scholastic achievement by the students; and wholeheartedly recommended higher education.

Being interested in athletics, he stressed all-out participation in support of all PHS sporting activities. He also saw the importance of the arts and encouraged drama, speech and music contests and stimulated their participation in school plays and music ensembles.

Yet, he didn't lose sight of the individual student and stressed good teacher-student relations. He was always ready to help students and therefore spent much of his time assisting them with their problems.

Language Arts Develops Communication Skills

Man's ability to communicate his ideas, feelings, and customs to others is important to the success and continued development of man. This is one reason why the language arts are stressed at Phillipsburg High School.

For all students, P. H. S. offered courses in English I, II, III, and IV, where they received much needed training in expressing ideas clearly. An understanding of the style and content of good literature, a vital part of the language arts program, contributed another aspect to the development of communication processes.

Speech I trained the student in the ability to communicate his thoughts verbally in a clear, concise way. For those students who held an interest in speech, forensics was offered. Forensics was aimed to help those who wished to use its practices in future education and occupations.

Drama helped the student acquire a better understanding of the perplexities in the world of the theater. Students learned terms of the stage, well known plays, and even put on a number of short plays for the school.

LONG range bookkeeping problems keep Duane Roy busy checking and re-checking his addition.

New Machines Added To Business Department

Experience and practice are necessary requirements for a person who is going into the field of business.

The Business education department at P. H. S. provided the opportunity to fulfill these requirements by offering courses in office practice, business machines, typing, shorthand, business law, economics, and bookkeeping.

All the courses were taught with conditions much like actual jobs in the business world. In this way, the student not only learned the terms and theories, but also practical application.

Science And Math Point To College

College preparatory courses were enthusiastically presented in the Math and Science departments this year. Almost all classes in these areas have been set up with the main idea of preparing students for a college education.

In Math concentration on pre-college was especially apparent in Algebra II and Senior Math. In preparation for these more advanced courses, Algebra I and Geometry were offered.

Biological sciences were also largely pre-college with greatest emphasis in the Advanced Biology class. Biology I and Chemistry were also included in this department.

The Physical sciences were aptly represented with Physics and Earth Science.

SEINING for specimens are Mr. Siemens and Greg Wallgren.

SHRIMP, beach-boy punch, and baked bananas were included in the world culture class's Luau.

MR. FRED MEIER

Good relationships between countries, cultural groups, and individuals have become an important factor in the development of the world.

For a student to understand why things are as they are now, he must know what past events have led up to them. World History and American History gave the necessary background for understanding current affairs.

Comprehending the operation of our government was covered in American Government, where the students became aware of the importance of the government in their daily lives.

Psychology studies the individual and why he acts as he does. Here students were introduced to the findings of Freud, Pavlov, and many other contributors to psychology.

Four new courses were added to the curriculum during 1966-67. World culture and current problems were offered the first semester; introduction to Western civilization and international relations, during second semester.

World culture classes studied the customs in other countries while current problems students studied the involvement of the United States in world problems. International relations showed the complexity of the handling of foreign affairs, while students delved into ancient history in western civilization.

Vocational Arts Utilize Practical Skills

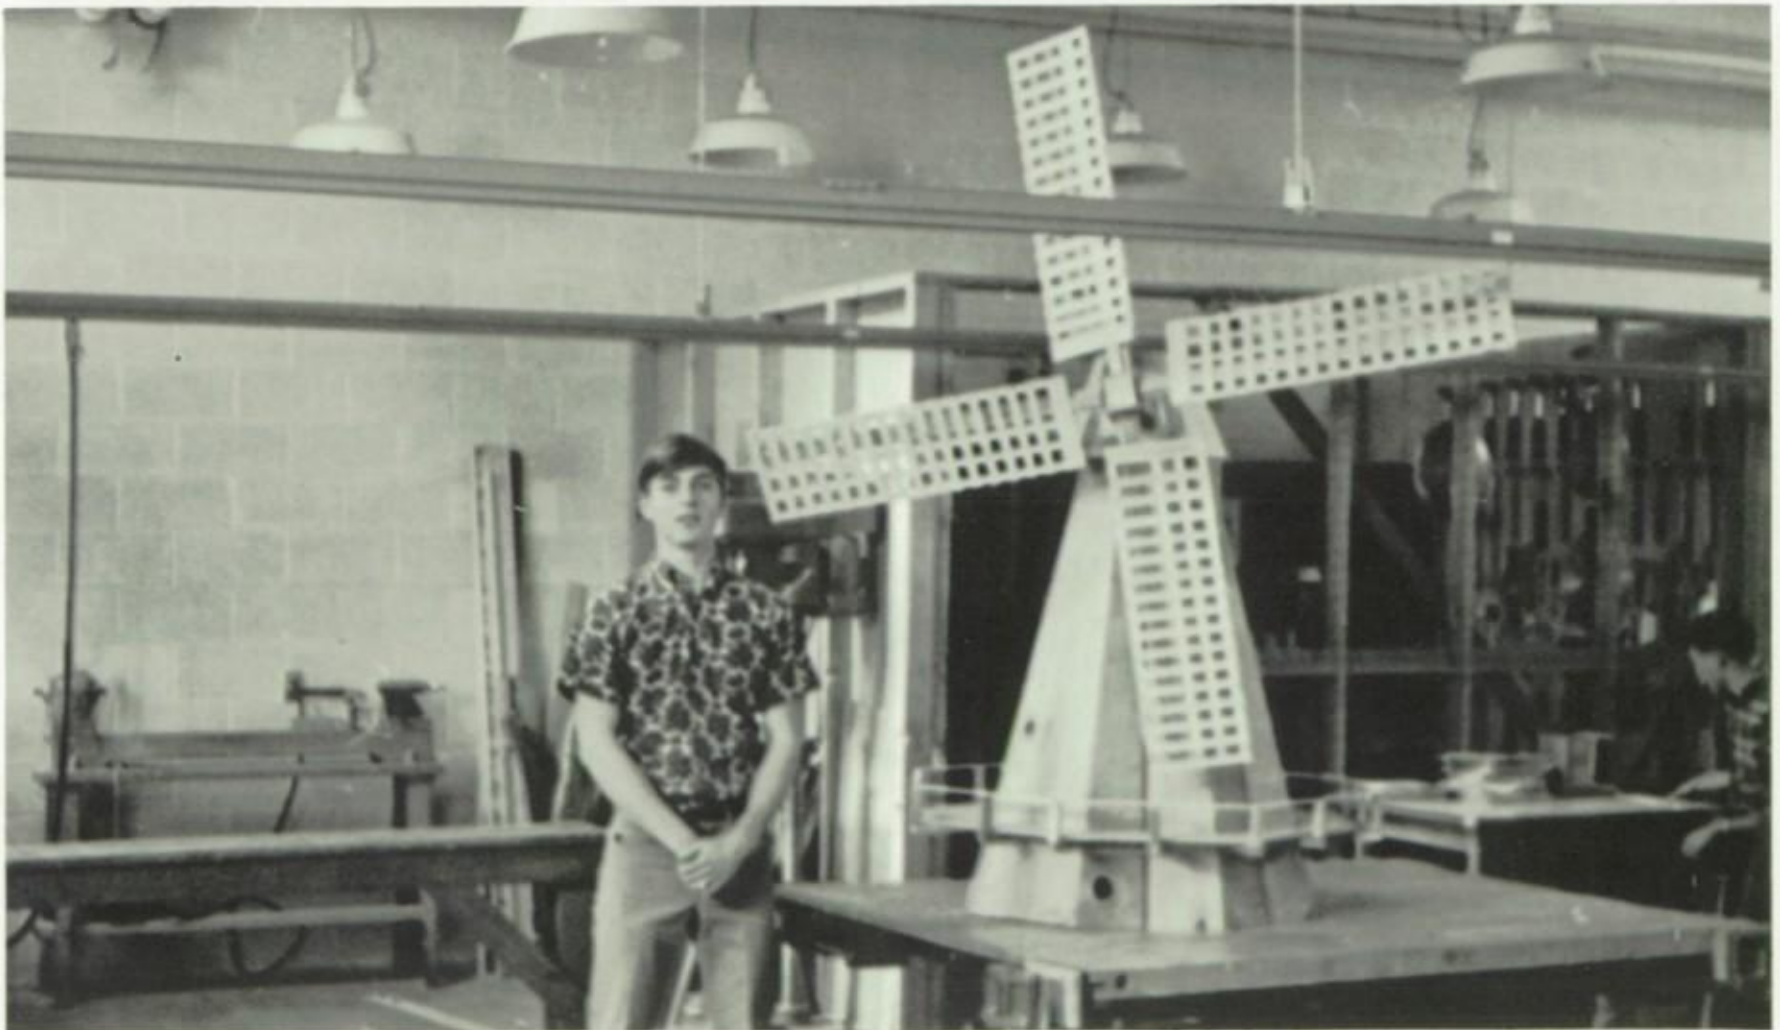

Knowing how to use the knowledge learned is highly important in any course. The vocational arts at PHS gave students a chance to make practical use of the knowledge given them in class.

The Industrial arts classes hold their own project shows as well as participating in area fairs. Vocational arts boys compete with other schools in such events as cattle judging, soil judging, and livestock handling.

Practical knowledge in the operation of an automobile was offered in Drivers Ed. Library science trained students in the organization and operation of an efficient library.

Not only cooking and sewing were taught in Home Ec but also such vital areas of homemaking as child care, purchasing, and budgeting.

Physical fitness was stressed in both girls' and boys' P. E.

Music Department Attends Many Clinics

Both vocal music and instrumental groups went to a variety of clinics and festivals this year and both earned high ratings.

Besides the Choruses and Concert Choir, vocal music at PHS was represented by special performance groups like the Madrigals, Girls Trio, and Freshman Girls Quartet.

The newly organized Stage Band was the favorite performing group in the instrumental department as far as PHS students were concerned. Equally appreciated, however, were the Marching Band, Ensemble Groups, and the Concert Band.

Record Number Of Freshmen Initiated

Initiation brought the first week of school to a startling and amusing close. Freshmen were seen running around the school yard in rather odd combinations of clothing. Seniors were close behind them, carrying such things as shaving creme, old perfume, cattle marker, and other various "home remedies." Activities began at 7:00 A.M. at the Junior High School, where 107 scared Freshmen had been told to report. After running through town and out to the high school, the Freshmen were allowed to clean up.

At 7:30 that night, the Freshman Initiation Dance, obviously a sock hop, was held in the high school gym. To start the evening off right, the Freshman students performed various stunts, under the direction of Seniors, of course. These stunts ranged from being "shocked" into eating raw eggs, to standing in ice water and singing "Phillipsburg High."

After each Freshman had had a chance to perform, the students converged on the gym floor to begin the dance. The Kahns provided the music for this first dance of the school year. The dance was well attended and everyone seemed to have a good time.

When the dance was ended and the day was over, the Class of 1970 had been officially accepted into the student body.

Stuco Strives For Improvement

Serving as the governing body for the students of Phillipsburg High School during the year, the Student Council sponsored a large number of activities. The purpose of the club is to give students decision-making power in school affairs. Clubs submit their plans and ideas to the organization, and they are discussed and accepted or rejected. One of the first projects the club undertook was the morning flag salute. Members of Stuco lead the Pledge of Allegiance each morning.

February brought the annual beard-growing contest. Senior and Junior boys did their best to encourage the "stubble" to grow, but at the final judging, few contestants were still in the running.

Dress-Up Days were held throughout the year for special occasions such as Eighth Grade Day. Following these days came a great compensation, also sponsored by Stuco Slop Day. Students took advantage of these days and dressed in the most comfortable manner possible.

Beneath the American flag at football games, the school flag waved proudly. This flag was purchased by the Student Council the previous year, but it was at the suggestion of this year's Stuco that it was displayed at our games.

Phillipsburg Hosts District Meeting

Y-Teen once again joined with Hi-Y in presenting a Friday morning worship. This weekly observance proved to be an inspiration to students and was generally well-attended.

April brought the completion of work on the Mother-Daughter Tea. With F. H. A. the members worked long hours to make the tea a success.

Hi-Y Participates In Model Legislature

Hi-Y is an organization created to develop and widen the interests and religious experiences of its members. With Y-Teen, the organization joined to present the weekly Friday morning worship, which was of great inspirational value to those students who attended.

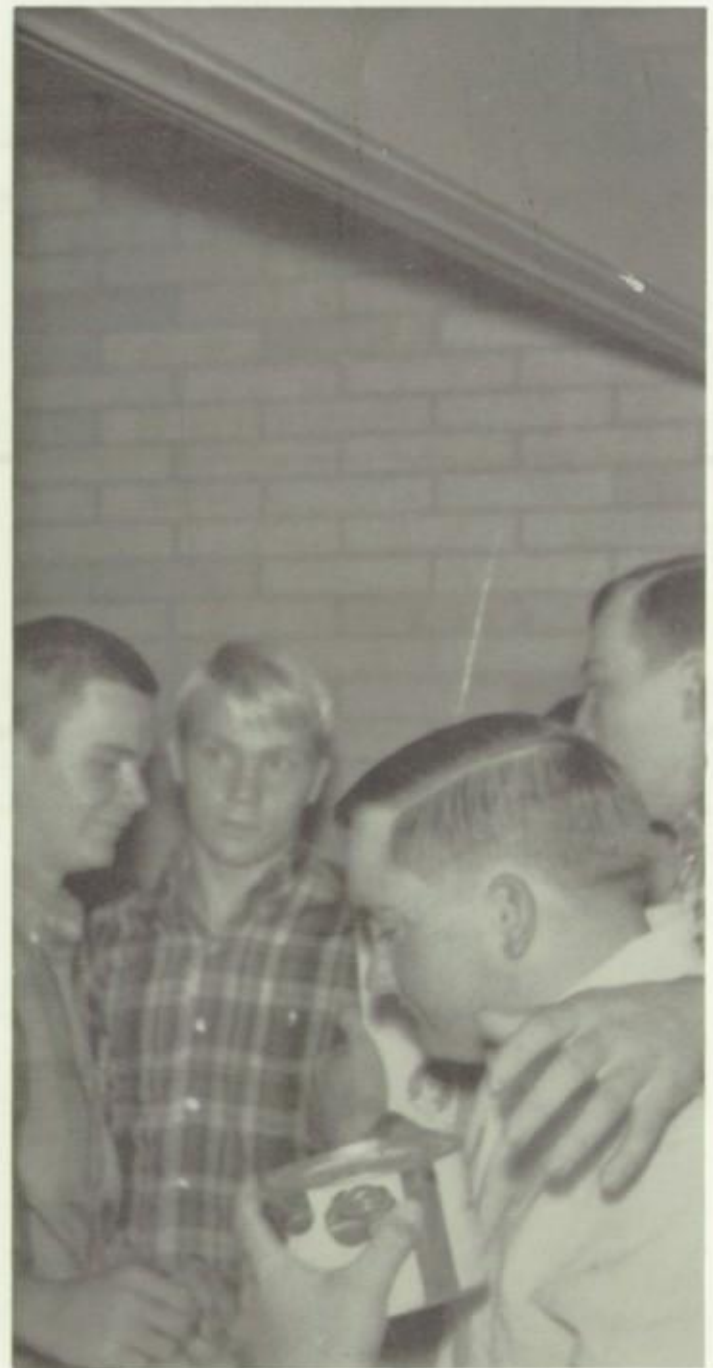

In addition to gaining religious insight, members of the club also learned much about legislative procedures. Eight members and the sponsor, Mr. Meier, attended Pre-Legislature at Hays in March. The purpose of this was to prepare the students for the activities and procedures at Model Legislature.

Four members accompanied Mr. Meier to Model Legislature, which was held at Topeka during the last week of April. This is held to further acquaint interested members with the law-making practices of the State of Kansas. The purpose in doing this is to prepare the youth of today to assume the responsibilities of legislative procedures in the future.

Slave Day was the major money-making project for the Future Homemakers of America. November 4 was set aside for the members to canvas the town and work for the club. Slave Day turned out to be not only fun for those participating, but profitable for the group.

State Meeting at Topeka was well attended by members of the Phillipsburg Chapter. Six girls received their State Degrees on Saturday morning, March 10.

F.H.A. is an organization to promote interest and skill in the field of homemaking. Meetings were enhanced by speakers, films, skits, and discussions relating to various areas of this field.

"Toward New Horizons," the motto of the organization, reflects the idea that the youth of today are the adults and leaders of tomorrow. This theme is carried through into the meetings by enlarging and widening the members' knowledge of family life and homemaking.

F.F.A. Stimulates Agricultural Interest

Future Farmers of America is a National Organization for boys studying vocational agriculture in high school. The primary aims and goals of the club are to stimulate interest in agriculture, and to promote leadership, cooperation and citizenship.

Phillipsburg's judging team went to Rexford where they received the first place rating. At Hays the team received a two rating. Rex Hanchett was high individual in the judging competition.

The creed of the Future Farmers of America reflects their interest in the betterment and progress of the farming industry. "I believe in the future of farming, with a faith not of words but of deeds-- achievements won by the present and past generation of farmers in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come up to us from the struggles of former years."

Cheerleaders

Boost School Spirit

Creating firm support behind the "Panther" teams was the primary purpose of the cheerleaders and pep club, as they backed the team at athletic events during the year with their enthusiasm.

Homecoming was the first major project for the members. Decorating the float took a large portion of a week. After entering the field in convertibles, the queen candidates spent the remainder of the evening on the float.

Pep squads were introduced for the first time this year. Members were divided into squads and competed with each other for the most points. These points also worked toward the attainment of chevrons to be worn on the outfit.

School spirit was boosted largely through the efforts of Miss Denham and Mrs. Prebble, Pep Club sponsors. They encouraged members to be active supporters in cheering the teams on to victory. At games, they sat in the cheering section and yelled, as loud as, or even louder than, the students.

P-Club Membership Grows

P. Club is the name given to the Lettermen's Club of Phillipsburg High School. It is a select group made up of boys who have lettered in one or more of the varsity sports offered at P.H.S. The members are primarily interested in advancing sportsmanship and making a more prominent school organization.

Some of the requirements of membership are participating in games, attending practice sessions regularly, showing a spirit of cooperation and displaying good sportsmanship at all times. These qualifications not only further an interest in sports, but also help develop a well-rounded individual.

Thespians Sponsor One-Act Play

Although Thespians Troupe 1967 is an elite group, membership is increasing every year. It is designed to give interested students an opportunity to explore various fields of stage and theatrical life.

In order to become a member of Thespians, a student must have participated in at least one three-act play or two one-act plays, with an equivalent of at least seventy lines.

Thespians has two major activities during the year. These are the Junior-Senior Play in the fall, and the Freshman-Sophomore Play in the spring.

Each year an outstanding Thespian is chosen to honor his efforts in Thespians. The recipient of this award is selected according to the contributions he has made to his troupe and the number of points he has earned.

This year Troupe 1967 sponsored the one-act play which was taken to Hays, where it was performed in competition with other schools in our district.

Jr.-Sr. Cast Presents "A MAN CALLED PETER"

"A MAN CALLED PETER," the fall play, was presented by the Juniors and Seniors on November 17 and 18. This play was based on a true story written by Catherine Marshall about the life of her husband.

Members of the play cast worked diligently to make the play a success. Many long-drawn-out hours were spent learning lines and rehearsing for the actual performance.

After the final performance on Friday, November 18, the cast had a play party at the Junior High School. Mr. and Mrs. Adams sponsored the party. Everyone talked and took advantage of the refreshments, while listening to records.

"The Family Nobody Wanted" Is Presented

"The Family Nobody Wanted," was the title of the Spring Play. It dealt with the problems, trials, and joys involved when a minister and his wife adopt several children each of a different nationality.

Freshmen and Sophomores combined their efforts in presenting this play. A large number of students were included in the cast. Every night of practice brought a new situation for the director, Mr. Adams, to cope with. One of these incidents was when some of the members of the cast decided to make their entrances and exits from the wrong side of the stage.

Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31, were the dates set aside for the presentation of this play. After the final performance of this play, the cast held the customary play party, with Mr. and Mrs. Adams acting as sponsors.

Staff Spends Long Hours Editing Panther

Much hard work and many long hours were spent by the annual staff in publishing the 1967 PANTHER. More informal pictures and better photography were among the improvements made this year.

Occasionally, when deadlines had been met, or there was a shortage of work to be done, the class held "jam sessions." These were interrupted systematically by Miss Denham's, "Let's keep it down," but not for long.

In spite of the work and long hours, the annual staff enjoyed working on the PANTHER.

ADVICE is given by Mr. Charles Lang during his monthly visit.

News Kept Current In Bi-Monthly Hi-Times

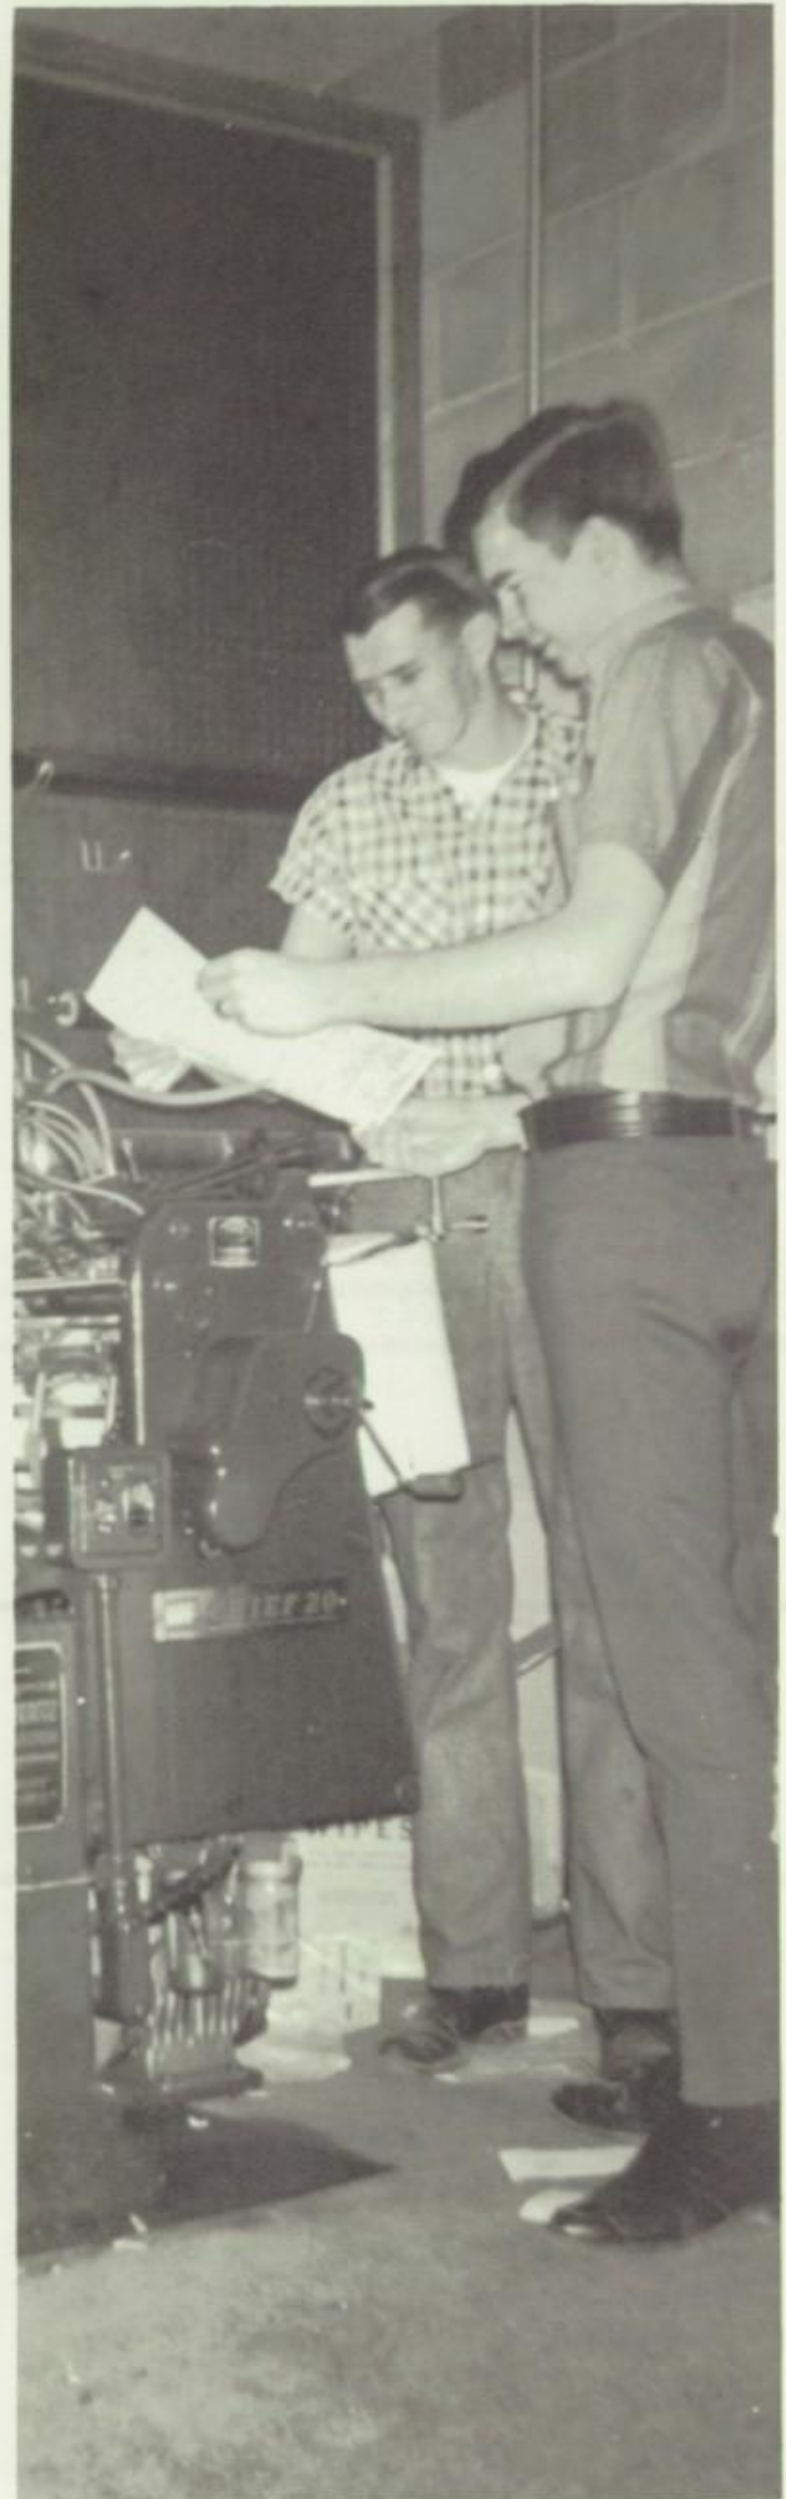

Only one page constituted the HI-TIMES this year, but it appeared twice as often. By handling its publication in this way, the staff felt that the news could be kept more current.

More frequent pictures, want ads, and "Dear Alvin" were unique features of the 1967 editions of HI-TIMES.

Since there were not sufficient subscriptions sold to pay the costs of publishing the HI-TIMES, several businesses gave their support by buying ads.

At the beginning of the year the club prepared a Spanish meal. Every imaginable Spanish food was presented, and the members seemed to enjoy it immensely.

Christmas came, and "Los Picalos" met the occasion by celebrating the holiday Spanish-style. Two pinatas were decorated, filled with candy and broken in the tradition of Spain.

Members of Spanish Club not only got practice in speaking Spanish, but also learned much about the customs and habits of our Spanish neighbors.

N.H.S. Helps Develop Individuality

Highlighting the year for members of National Honor Society was the annual banquet on April 4, 1967. Parents, teachers, administrators and school board members joined the members of N. H. S. for the banquet. The purpose of the banquet was to honor parents for their help and support in educational endeavors. Guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. David Rankin, who spoke on the values and need for higher education.

Membership in N. H. S. is based on character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Each student must be strong in every point. A panel of teachers rates the prospective members in each of these areas. Five percent of the junior class is inducted in the spring of the year, and ten percent of the senior class in the fall of the year.

DAVE Rankin addresses group at banquet.

Becky And Lloyd Reign Over Sweethearts

Sweethearts Ball, an annual event, was held February 11, 1967, in the auditorium of the South Grade School. A local dance band, The Kahns, played from 8:30 until 12:00.

The high point of the evening arrived as Lloyd Jones was crowned Mr. Panther, and Becky Bowman was crowned Annual Queen. Lloyd's attendants were Wayne Kreller and Kerry Westbrook. Becky's were Dixie Demshock and Vivian Biggs.

Red, pink, and white provided the background decorations for the dance. The theme of Sweethearts was carried out by a large pink heart and small paper hearts attached to the streamers.

The evening's festivities were temporarily halted at 11:30 when the decorations fell. But after the initial shock, the couples resumed dancing and enjoying themselves.

DINING at the Elks Club in the atmosphere of a "Roman Holiday", was a special treat for P.H. S. juniors and seniors.

Roman Theme

Chosen For Prom

"Roman Holiday" was the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet which was held at the Elks Club on May 6, 1967. The sophomore servers dressed in the tradition of ancient Rome, and the room was adequately decorated for the occasion. Large columns were decorated and transformed into breathtaking pillars of Rome.

From 9:00 to 12:00 juniors and seniors danced to music provided for their entertainment by the Norton Dance Band.

Prom is one of the highlights of the year, especially for the seniors. It is one of the last activities the class enjoys and attends as a group.

True to tradition, the customary Prom Show was shown at the Drive-In. "The Deadly Bees" was the name of the show.

After the show was over the students charged up-town to, once again, continue the tradition of staying up until all hours of the morning.

BY imitating a Smothers Brothers routine, Rhonda Hand and Tammy John nearly stole the show.

EVEN faculty sponsors, Mr. Casset and Mr. Marks assisted in decorating for prom.

NORTON'S Dance Band again proved a success at Prom, helping to make May 6, 1967, a memorable evening for all.

Band Achieves High Ratings

This year the band, under the direction of Mr. Sisk, achieved many high ratings. Their first competition was at Hays where the band received a one rating in marching. At the League Clinic in Plainville, the concert band received a one rating. At Concordia at the State Music Festival, the concert band received a two rating. This year the school board voted in new uniforms for the band next year. The uniforms are navy blue and gold. Phillipsburg High School extends congratulations to the band for a job well done.

OF course the members of the band always take their applause humbly.

Band's Enthusiasm Reveals Panther Pep

New to P. H. S. this year was the Stage Band. To prepare for performances, band members practiced on their own time every Sunday. This year the Stage Band entertained the P. T. A. and gave a program for a school lyceum. Next year they hope to play for dances in the area as well as school events.

Active in all phases of school life, the Concert Band amazed and pleased patrons of the high school as well as students. This same group, which also performs as the Marching Band, provided entertainment at football games, presented a Fall and Spring Concert, and participated in League and State Music Contests.

AFTER hours of practicing on their own, the P. H. S. Stage Band gave a fine assembly performance.

Instrumental Dept.

Shows

Marked Improvement

Evidence of marked improvement in the instrumental department is seen in the high ratings earned by ensembles at district and state contests this year. Although a one rating is the most coveted, a two is very high and is not scorned by either instructors or students.

Many hours of tedious practice precedes any performance at the State Music Festival. One wrong note can spoil chances for a good rating. With the experience and training gained this year, hopes are bright for those who are already looking forward to next year's competition.

State Music Festival was held this year at Concordia on April 7 and 8. Phillipsburg entered a number of events and succeeded in gaining a total of six "I's", ten "II's", and one "III". This is a fine tribute to a school the size of P.H.S. All those interested in the Instrumental Department are anxiously awaiting 1968's results.

Concert Choir Reaches High Goals This Year

Under the direction of Miss Carolyn Behan, the Concert Choir strived to gain perfection throughout the year. The Choir participated in League Vocal clinic at Palco, which was supervised and conducted by Dr. Donald Stout of Fort Hays State. All choirs in the League joined forces to present a concert. In April, the Choir went to Concordia to compete in State Music Contest, where they received a two rating.

Winter and Spring Concerts were both presented by Concert Choir. The members performed the Winter Concert in formality, wearing choir robes. Gaity, was the mood created for the Spring Concert as the girls entered wearing formals featuring all the pastel colors of spring.

Eighty-two voices practiced during sixth hour on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Correct breathing and good tonal quality were an important part of the Choir's study. However, harmony was the primary concern concentrated on producing this quality. Some of the favorite pieces sung by the Choir were "The Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah," "Love is a Many Splendored Thing," and "The Impossible Dream" from "Man from La Mancha."

Several soloists were called upon to perform at various times throughout the year, for example, Winter and Spring Concerts, and State Contest. During the year Rachael Jupe served as accompanist for the group.

Members of the Choir have many memories to take with them, not only of performances, but also of the fun and enjoyment they shared in the many hours of rehearsal.

Glee Clubs' Add Spirit To Music

Boys Glee Club met on Thursday afternoon of each week under the direction of Miss Behan. The Glee Club added much enthusiasm and variety to the music department this year with their high-spirited singing. Twenty-four musically-minded young men took part in Boys Glee. Although they didn't perform for any organizations or contest, the boys enjoyed singing as a group for their own entertainment.

Ninety vigorous young women made up the Girls Glee Club this year. Girls Glee participated, along with Concert Choir, Madrigals, soloists, and the Freshman Quartet, in the Spring Music Concert. A touch of color was added as the girls entered wearing floor-length formals of various pastel hues at the Spring Concert.

In April, the members of Girls Glee traveled to Concordia to participate in State Music Contest. Two songs were chosen to enter in the competition, and the girls came out with a final rating of two.

The selections sung by the two groups ranged from solemn religious songs to lighthearted tunes with nonsense lyrics. Both the Girls Glee and the Boys Glee have profited much from the year's experiences with music. Not only have they improved in tonal quality and music appreciation, but more important, they had fun while they were learning.

HIGH spirited singing typify the Boys Glee.

PERFECTION throughout the year symbolized the Girls Glee.

Madrigals Sing For Representatives

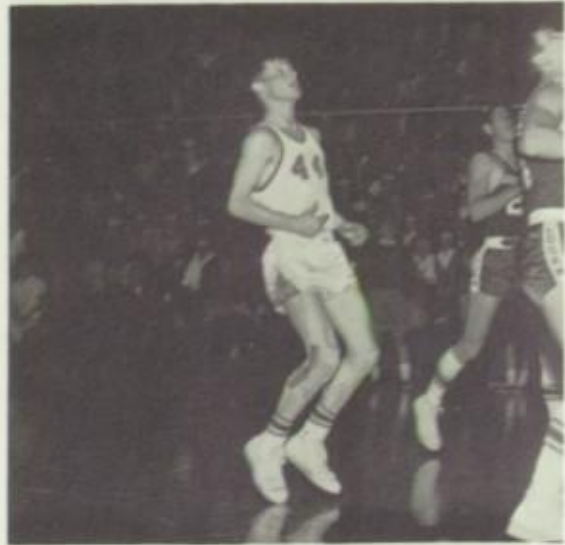

One of the most active groups in the vocal music department was The Madrigal Singers. Performing for only their second year, they have gained popularity throughout our area.

Many schools in the county have invited them to perform, as well as local clubs and civic groups. A Christmas television program was also part of their busy schedule.

One of the most memorable honors given this fine group was the invitation of Francis Jacobs to sing for the Kansas House of Representatives on February 20. A second honor was the one rating given at the State Music Festival.

Panthers Have Long Football Season

Lots of hard work, a few victories, and a few disappointments summarize the Panthers' football season of two wins, five loses, and one tie. Scoring was not always the problem, but doing it, and doing enough of it at the right time was the problem.

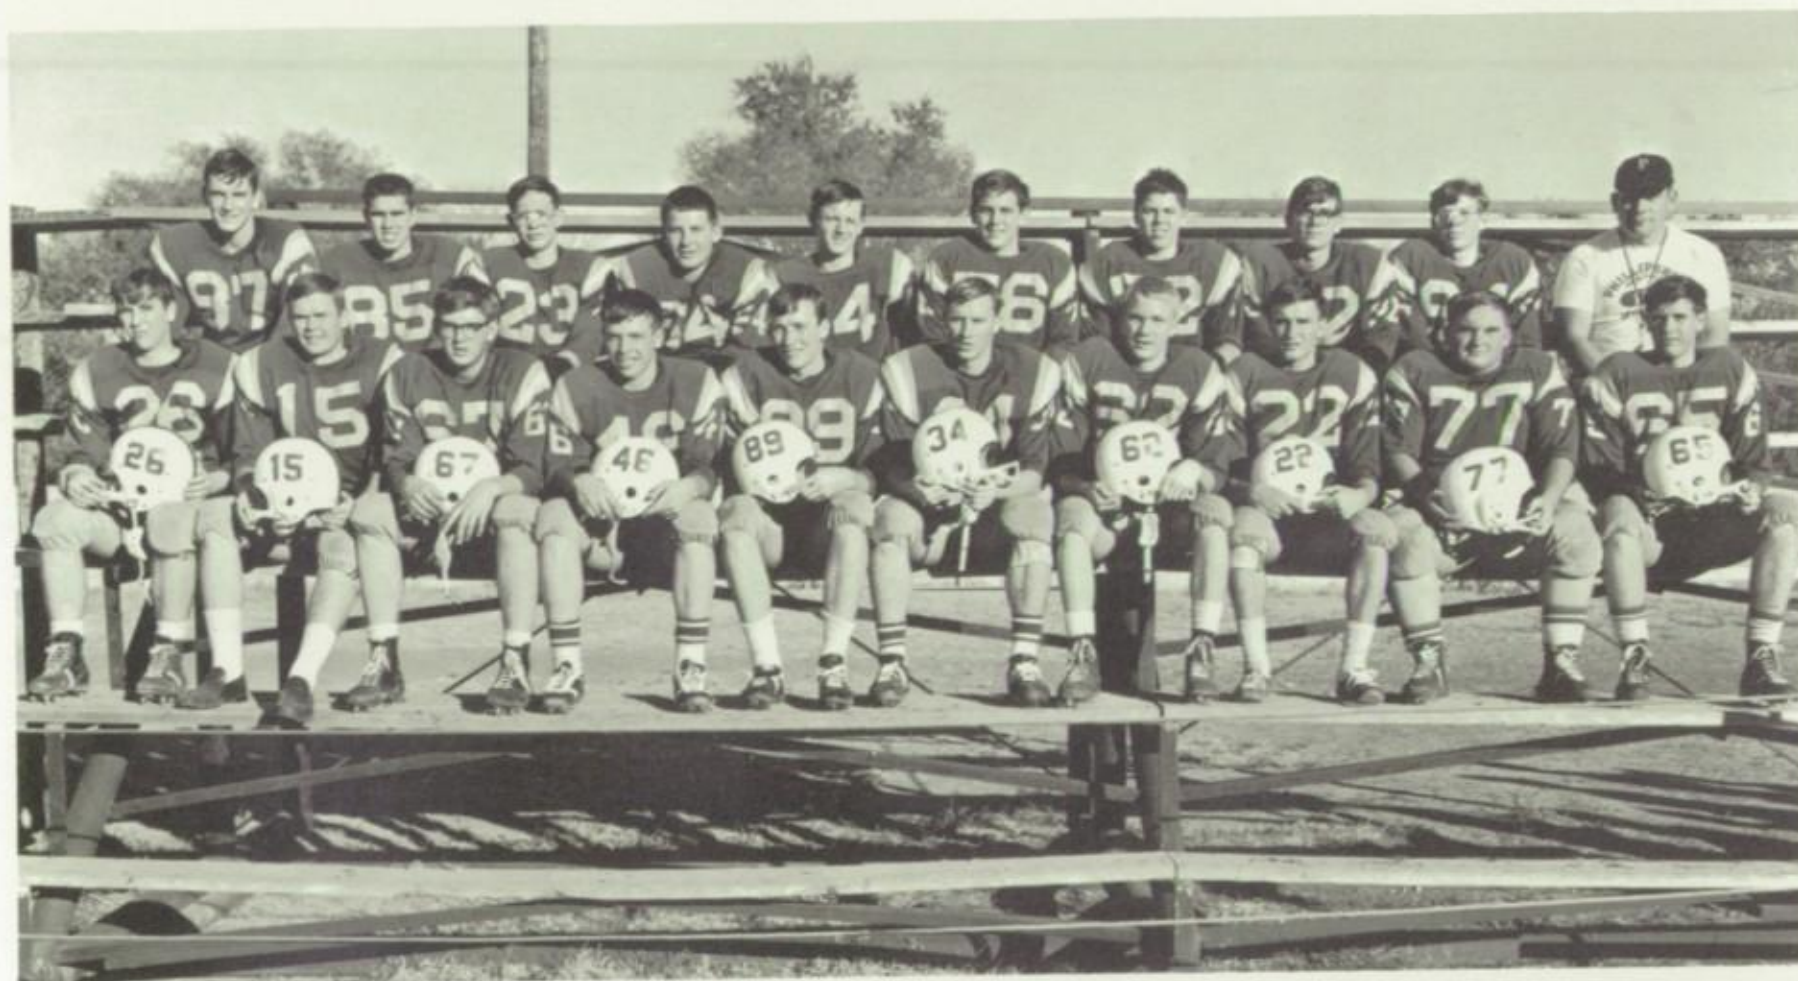

A little hard luck was also suffered by the Panthers. Quarterback Kerry Westbrook was put out for almost two-thirds of the season and several other back and ankle injuries weakened the Panthers' potential. They never gave up though, because through the total season the Panthers were only out-scored 12 points by their opponents.

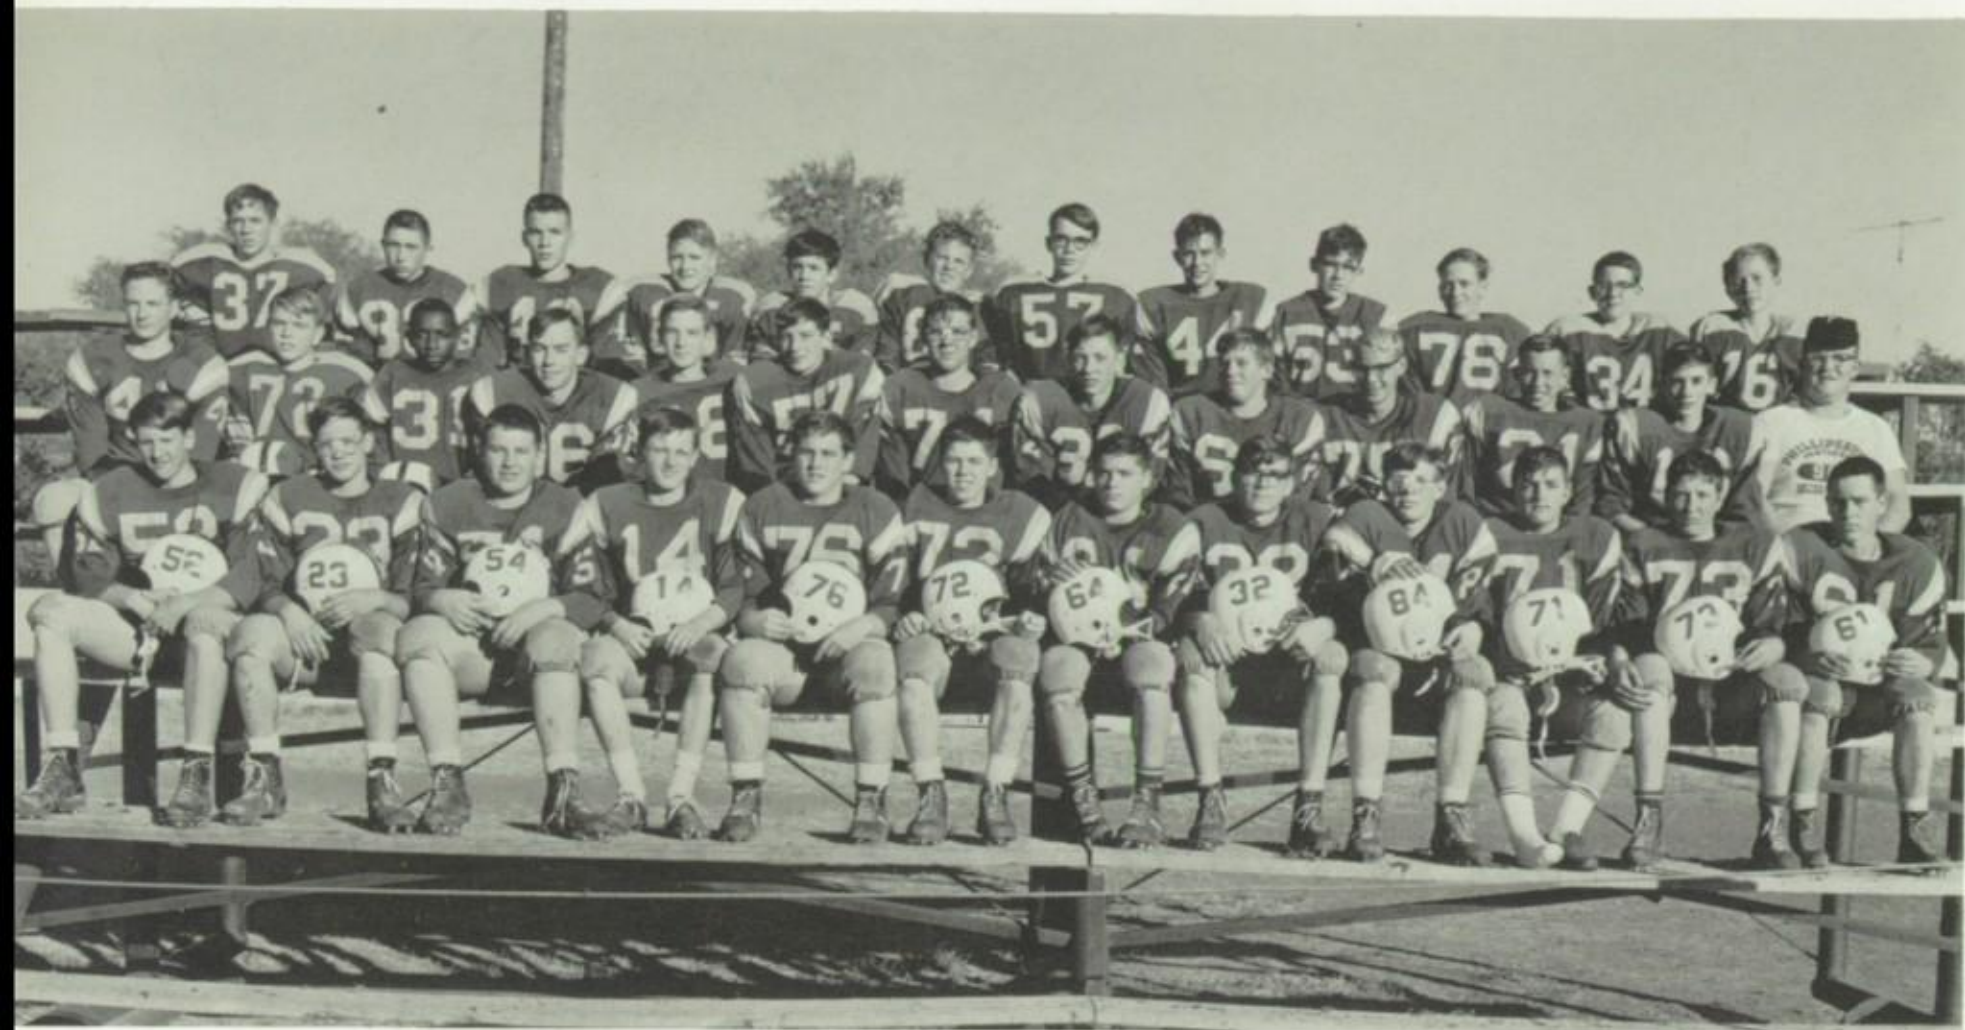

Even though the Panthers had a losing season, they were well-represented on the All-League Teams. Two boys, Terry Draper and Karl Dusin, made All-League First Team; two boys, Kerry Westbrook and Van Ibsen, made All-League Second Team; and one boy, Don Shields, made All-League Honorable Mention.

B-Team Salvages Two Wins

COACHES pause from daily routine.

Success was with the B-team Panthers when they traveled to Hill City. Hill City had not been defeated for almost two years, but the B-team Panthers went to play a game and do some scoring. They proved they could, too, by slaughtering the Ringnecks by a runaway score of 48 to 7.

The other big glory of the season for the B-team Panthers was celebrated when they defeated Smith-Center at the local field, 38 to 0.

The rest of their season was not so successful, being defeated by Norton in a free-for-all scoring affair in which both teams scored over thirty points, the final score being 47 to 35. They also lost to Stockton and Smith Center which ended their season of five games.

Win Second In Regional Basketball Tourney

As the A-Team went into the locker room for half-time in the finals of the Regional Tourney at Russell, the Panthers were in a state of happy excitement for they had a one point lead on Hoxie who was rated second in the state.

Something happened after that half-time though, because the Panthers lost by a sizable margin to a team unlike any they had ever encountered. Hoxie, unbeaten this season, almost held the Panthers motionless extending their winning streak to twenty games.

The Panthers ended with an eleven win and eleven lost record for all games which was a perfect .500. They clinched fourth in the League Tourney and tied for 2nd in League games with a 4 and 2 record. Excitement did not die down during the entire season, for several games were lost by only a scant margin and others won by only a point or two.

The Panthers had nine Seniors and one Sophomore on the squad. Lloyd Jones made the Class "A," All-State Team, while others also received honors. The Coach along with everyone else was proud of the team for their hustle, spunk, and their quality of never quitting.

A-Team Ends 12-12; Tie For Second In League

EXCITEMENT and action were always at a high pitch during Panther basketball games.

TWO lettermen, who are sophomores, will return for the Panther Basketball A-Team.

B Team Jinxes A-Team Twice

Discouragement was almost flowing freely among the B-team Panthers through most of the season until they journeyed to Ellis. They had lost the first ten games of the season which was rather heart-breaking. It was especially heart-breaking because several of the games had been fought right down to the wire but it always ended up that the opponent came out victorious. They never gave up though, winning over Ellis first and then winning their second consecutive game over Logan.

When they won over Ellis and Logan they seemed to jinx the A-team because the A-team Panthers lost both of those games even though one of them was very close.

Their season resulted with two wins and fourteen losses.

Freshmen Brighten Future For Basketball

Future years are looking bright for the Panthers in basketball. Under the coaching of Coach Dennis, the Freshman Basketball Team had an extraordinary year of losing only two games. The two defeats were handed out by the Smith Center Redmen and the Hill City Ringnecks. Both losses were heart-breakers to lose because both were close in scoring. Oddly enough, both defeats were on the first and last games of the season being defeated by Smith Center the first game and Hill City the last.

The middle of the season seemed to be the easiest going for the Panthers. Several games were won by sizable margins while others were thrillers to watch and kept you on the edge of your seat.

Bruce Hawley was the stand-out on the Freshman Team with his shooting ability, rebounding, leadership, and ball-handling. One game he scored as many as 40 points and was over 20 points almost every consecutive game. Also, during one of the season's games he salvaged a 100% shooting average which is very remarkable.

Coach Dennis was very satisfied with his team and their season record of eleven wins and two losses.

BRUCE Hawley fights to get rebound.

Panthers Tie For Second In Tough MCL

Competition proved to be hard and vigorous for the golf team during the year. The Panthers, behind the coaching of Jake Aust, resolved to be one of the hardest teams to beat. By doing this they tied for second with Palco and Ellis in the Mid-Continent League. They concluded their regular league season with eleven wins and two losses.

Two of the big tournaments were the Beloit Invitational and the Mid-Continent League Tourney at Wakeeney. The Panthers tied for 3rd with Palco behind two other MCL teams in the Beloit Invitational. In the MCL Tourney Phillipsburg placed fourth.

The traveling golf team consisted of Robbie Chittenden, Rod Tramp, Willie Smith, Doug Kaup, and Larry Evans.

LARRY Evans sliced badly but retrieved the ball from the barn and still made it in par.

WITH two Junior lettermen returning, the golf team hopes to keep up a good record next year.

COACH Aust explains rules at one of the regular golf meets held in Phillipsburg.

NINE Seniors dominated the Track Squad but six returning lettermen give high hopes for future years.

Brett Biggs finishes tired and laggert after two miles.

Four New School Records In Track

Van Ibsen broke two new school track records by at least three-tenths of a second in the Low Hurdles and in the 440 yard dash. Tony Imm spurred up another record in the broad jump by breaking his own previous mark by nearly six inches.

The Medley Relay Team tied the school record and broke it three times in a row to place fifth in the State Track meet.

Phillipsburg had two dual track meets with Kensington and Stockton and won both easily. The Phillipsburg Invitational was also won by Phillipsburg narrowly sliding past Stockton by 1 1/2 points. It also won fourth place at the Mid-Continent League Meet at Wakeeney.

Coach Dennis was well pleased with the 23 boys in the track squad and said it was one of his best track teams. This was proved by fourteen lettermen.

THE State Medley Relay Team was composed of John Elliott, Terry Draper, Kerry Westbrook, and Bud Keeten.

WITH only one girl leaving, the 440 yard relay team has a good chance to win next year.

Girls' Track Retrieves 3rd League Trophy

Girls' Track seems to have inherited the league trophy. Ever since there has been girls' track in the Mid-Continent League, which has been three years, the Panther Girls' track team has taken every trophy plus other medals.

The 440 yard relay team has won every year and this year was no exception. This year, winners at the Mid-Continent League Trackmeet included Sheri Jennings, first, and Rhonda Tramp, second, in the 70 yard low hurdles; Dorothy Herrick, second, and Sheri Jennings, fourth, in the 50 yard dash. Members of the winning 440 yard relay team were Doris Roy, Rhonda Tramp, Dorothy Herrick, and Sheri Jennings.

Other track meets that the girls competed in, but did not place, were at Hays and Beloit.

MUCH was accomplished, even though there were few girls out for track.

Snake Dance Opens Homecoming Events

Homecoming activities were spurred into motion with a Snake Dance which began at 3:30 on October 29, 1966. During the "dance" through town, the Queen candidates gave speeches at each corner of the square.

The evenings' festivities were highlighted by the crowning of Vivian Biggs as Queen and Van Ibsen as King. As a change, this ceremony was held prior to the game. The Homecoming Game was won by Phillipsburg who defeated Palco 57 to 13.

Playing for the Homecoming Dance at the Armory, were the Assignments. Again, a day filled with happiness and memories made Homecoming Day a success.

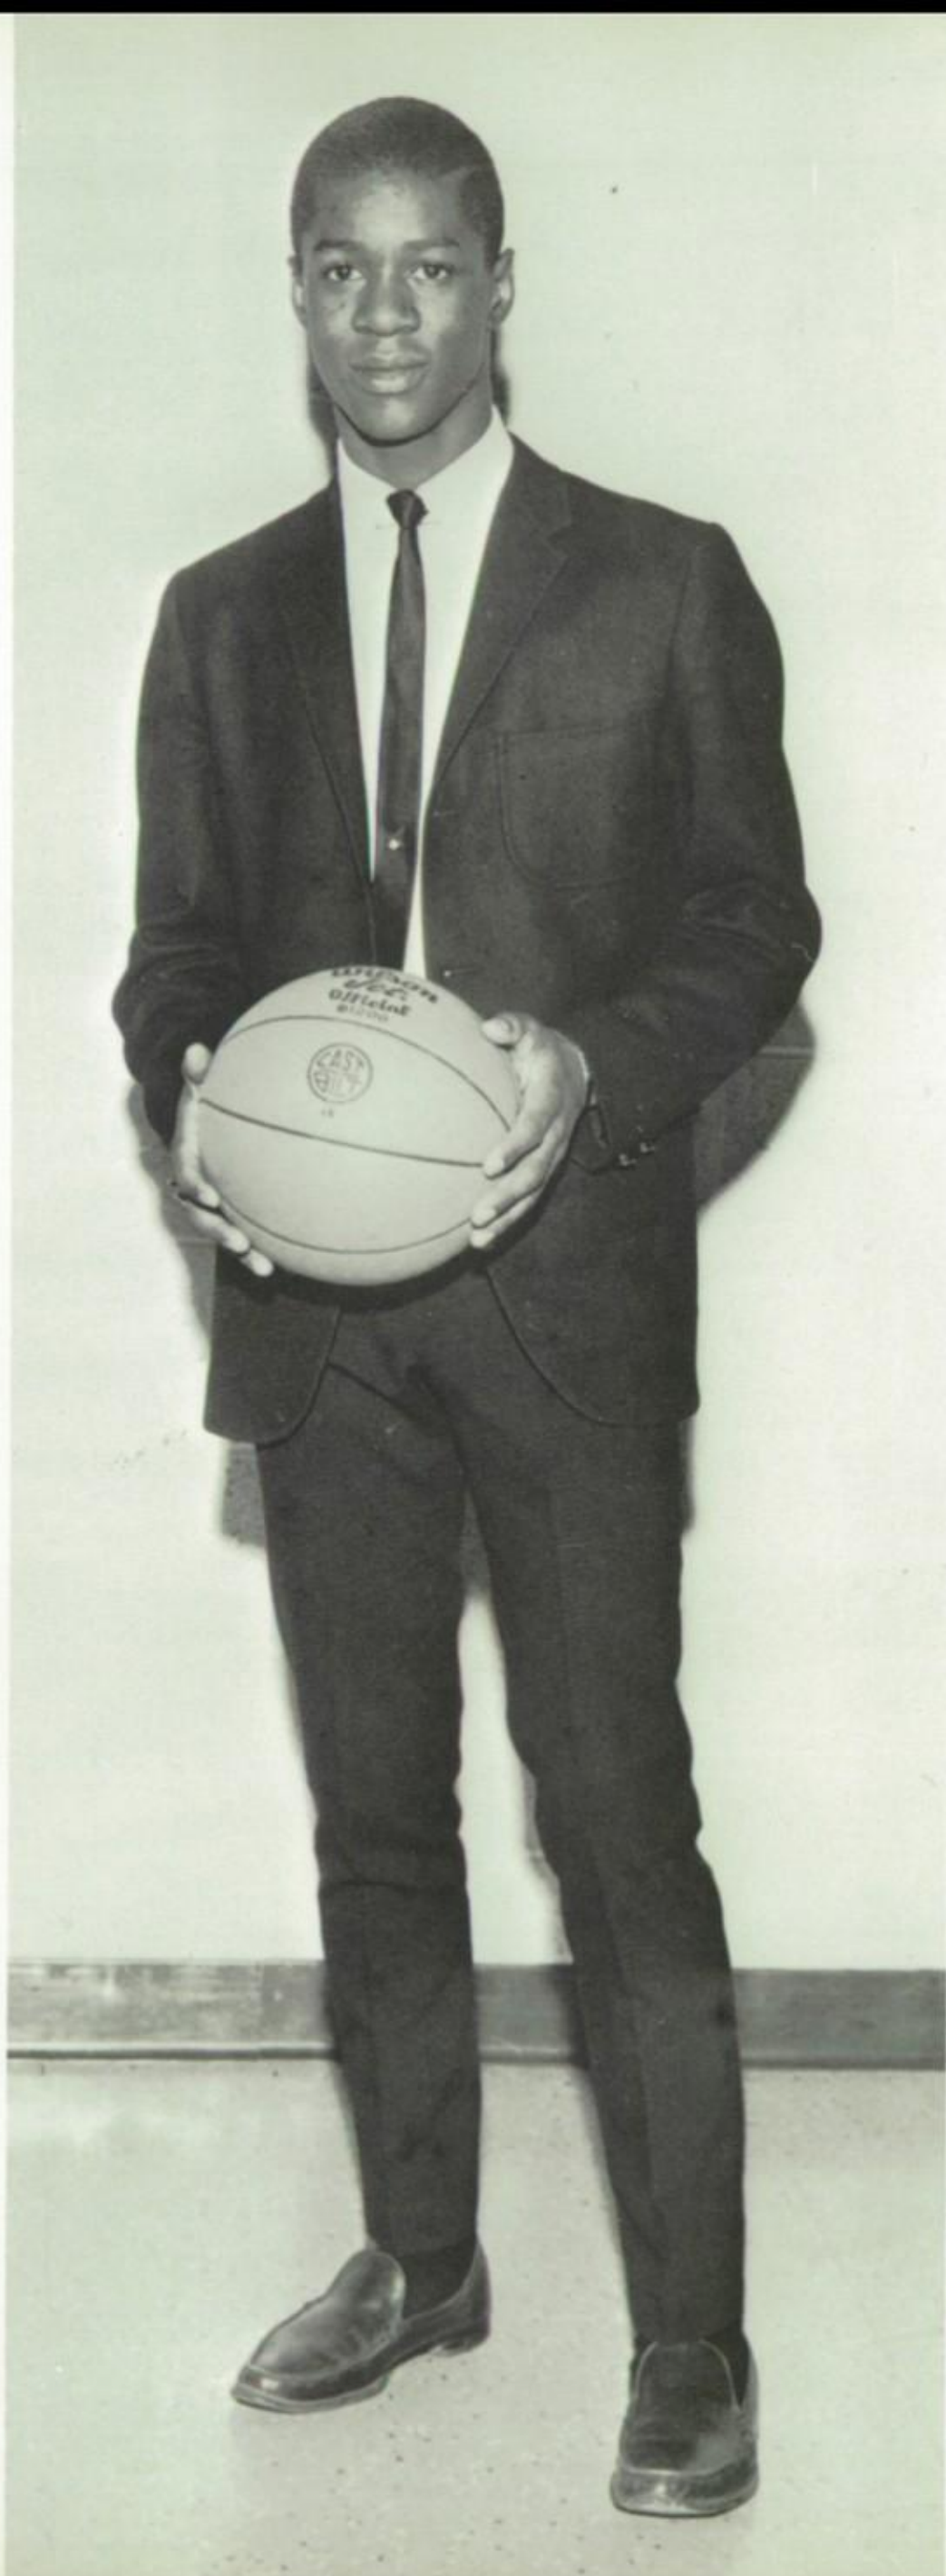

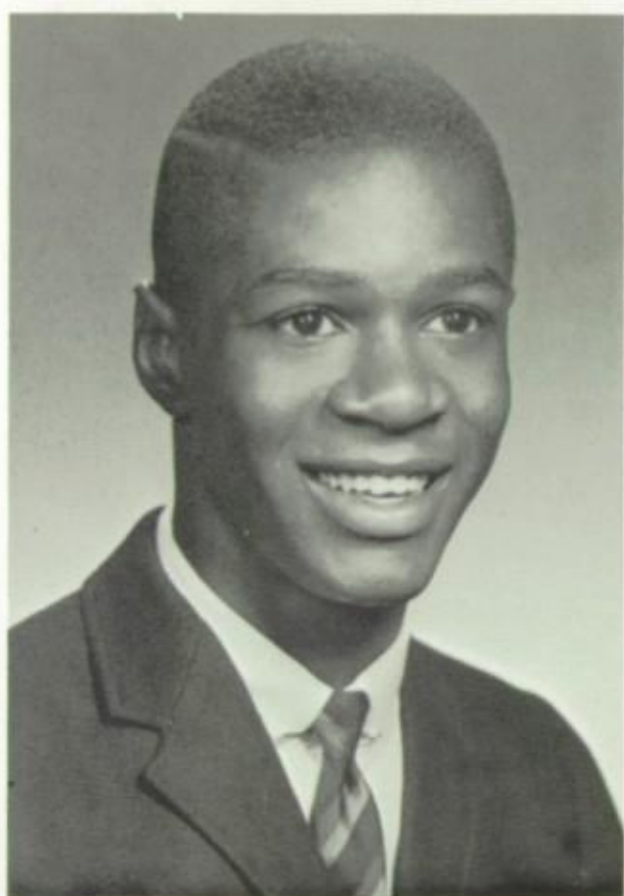

ANNOUNCEMENT of the Queen causes emotions ranging from surprise to bliss.

Lloyd Jones

Mr. Panther Makes All-State Team

In a contest sponsored by the publications class, Lloyd Jones was selected to be 1967 Mr. Panther. The three preliminary candidates were chosen by the Pub class and then all students who had purchased annuals voted on their favorite. Kerry Westbrook and Wayne Kreller were runners-up for Mr. Panther.

Since Mr. Panther is one of the highest positions for males at PHS, the qualifications are also high. The Mr. Panther image includes athletic participation, scholarship, personality, and participation in school.

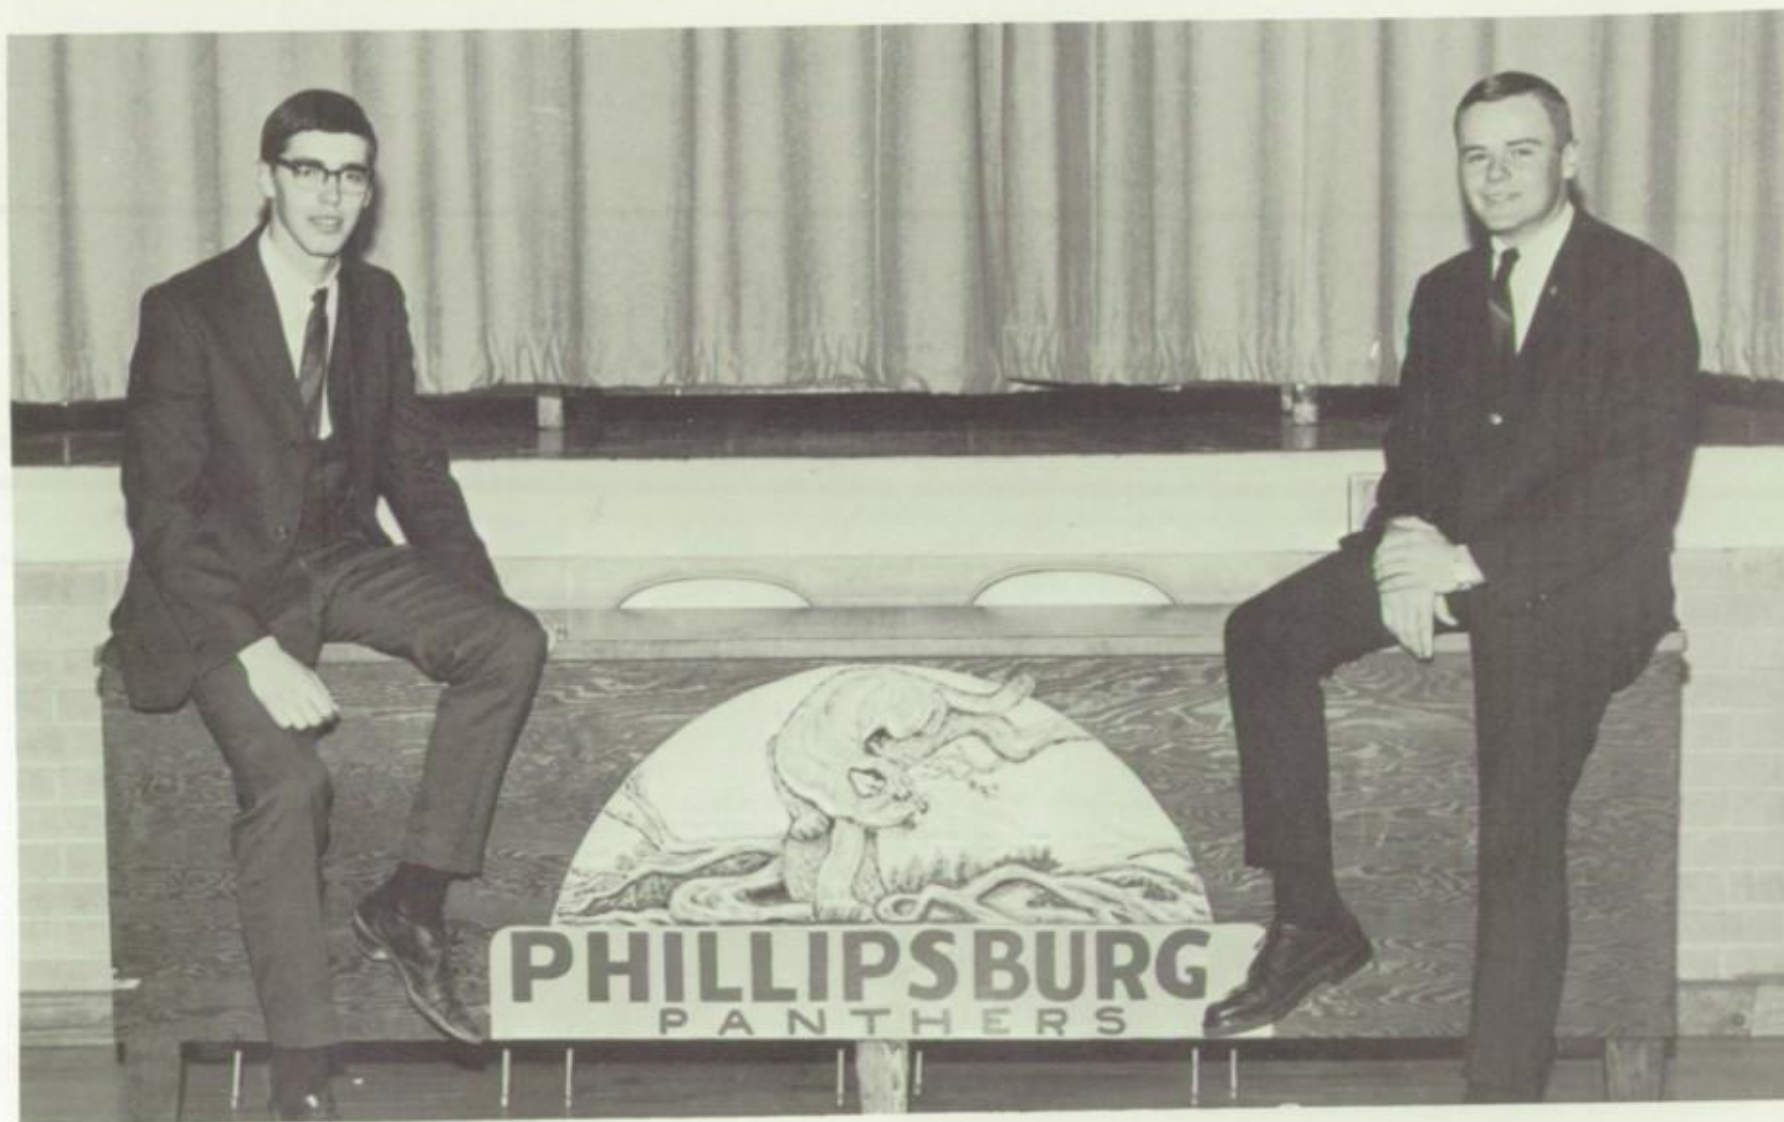

Lloyd met these requirements. He was an excellent athlete, specializing in basketball. The WICHITA EAGLE gave him a position on their All-State First Team, a cherished position for high school athletes. Even though he missed several games because of a leg injury, he still was high-point man for the season and had the highest average for points-per-game.

But just as important as his athletic ability was his way with people. Lloyd was well liked by both students and teachers. He was considered a favorite among students and a good, conscientious student by teachers.

Reigning over the 1966-67 P.T.A. Carnival were Craig Johnson and Cindy Bogart, both juniors. The King and Queen booth was one of the most popular at the carnival, where penny votes were cast for favorite candidates.

As usual, the P.T.A. Carnival was held at the junior high building, this year on October 29. Nearly every organization at the high school sponsored and operated a booth. Members of the organizations plus club sponsors volunteered their time and energy to this event.

Proceeds from the carnival were given to the P.T.A. to be dispersed into worthwhile areas of their own choosing.

Alpha And Omega Seen In Commencement

An end and a beginning were symbolized at the 1967 Commencement ceremony, May 19, at 8:00 p. m. Leaving behind fond memories and painful maturing, seniors will strike out toward new dreams and more challenging endeavors.

This year a total of 76 candidates received diplomas. One innovation appeared in the 1967 exercise, the faculty marched in before the class and were seated immediately in back of them during the program.

The class's motto, "I am climbing a difficult road, but the Glory gives me strength," portrays the spirit and attitude of the group. Part of us leaves with you, Class of '67!

GOOD wishes and praise were given to seniors following Commencement.

ANXIOUSLY awaiting that treasured moment are faces of happiness, relief, and sadness.

Senior Officers Set Class Goals

Members of the graduating class of 1967 left a trail of accomplishments any graduating class would be envious of and any unclass would view as a challenge. As Freshmen, the class of 1967 joined the ranks of P.H.S. to contribute to the high scholastic achievements and the lively school spirit of the school. As Sophomores, they looked up to upperclassmen, knowing that soon they too would be among this envied group. As Juniors, they financed the Junior-Senior Prom with the aid of magazine sales. During their last year, the class succeeded in scholastic excellence as well as promoting extra-curricular activities.

The Senior class of 1967 were leaders not only in scholastic achievements but also in loyalty and school spirit. This ability was made known to the school by the selection of a fine group of class officers.

Junior Magazine Sales Finance Prom

Phillipsburg juniors displayed rare vitality and ability as they continued the fine work begun in the fall of '63. Triumphant over their "superiors" in fall magazine sales, the juniors demonstrated the individual participation which made this success the first of many.

Upon receipt of class rings, the juniors more closely identified themselves with the responsibilities of being Phillipsburg High students. Their serious approach to responsibility was evident in an ever improving scholastic record and an impressive version of the Junior-Senior Prom. They brilliantly displayed their imagination as they decorated for the "Roman Holiday," one of the finest proms in Phillipsburg's history.

All the members of the junior class are eager to assume their new duties as seniors in the year ahead. The juniors are sure to go far with the fine attitudes they possess.

The Sophomore class of 1967 has come from its first hesitant steps to giant strides in the direction of becoming an integral part of Phillipsburg High School. In a few short weeks, the class contributed greatly to the athletic team, elected a strong, slate of class officers, achieved high scholastic records, and weathered the harassment from upper-classmen.

No class surpassed the Sophomore class of '67 in its drive and willingness to help. Commendable contributions came in the form of unfaltering school spirit, a sincere interest in club activities, and a friendliness which set an example for all students.

Undoubtedly, the Soph's greatest lesson was the realization of the importance of a solid foundation for subsequent learning, and its biggest achievement was winning the secret admiration of the upperclassmen.

TESTS help initiate the class of 1970 into the academic life of high school.

Frosh Tests Confuse First Days At P.H.S.

The Freshmen class of '67 began with a thrilling day of Freshmen Initiation. That was a fun filled day ending with a dance that evening. But, it was shortly forgotten when the tests came along requiring a lot of thought which these test had to have. This always goes along with being a little Freshmen. When entering P. H. S. the Freshmen Class contributed a great deal of intelligence and inspiration, along with a lot of beauty in the halls and class rooms. They have learned their way of life same as the rest of the student body at P. H. S. They have certainly learned a lot in this building of high education.

Memories Of This Time And Place

The variety of our school experiences culminates in this our final year. The range of activities runs to both extremes--serious and comic. Somewhere in between lies the stuff from which memories are made.

The days spent here leave us with mixed emotions. Times of laughter--when our team won; times of anger--when the teacher gave all that homework; times of sorrow--when that perfect date just wasn't.

They were good years. We leave them to face new adventures, but we go with memories of this time and place.
